THE TRAPPER GETS TRAPPED

There are people who will tell you that I am ageless. That I have lived for many centuries. There are others who claim that I know the ancient secrets of the East. And there are even those who say that I belong to the future. I make no comments on these statements or on any of the other things they say about me. I will only admit one thing. That where there is Evil in this world - I am dedicated to fighting it.

I sat in the office of Commissioner Howard Thompson. On his table was a map of the Kusini Animal Preserve.

"The poachers are at it again. We have reason to believe that Hans Kruger and his men are using net traps to get lions to sell abroad. As far as we know the captured lions are taken across the border. There in the town of Kosogoro they have a little zoo. So all will be made from that zoo."

"So all I have to do is to go to Kosogoro and liberate those animals and see they get back here again." I smiled. "As simple as that."

"And that is the last thing in the world we want to happen," sighed the Commissioner. "I could send some of my men to do that. And we would end up with a war between two countries. Might go down in the history books as the Lion War. I am certain you can handle this in your own way."

I nodded in the affirmative. Outside was my jeep and in it was my faithful helper, Wambasa. I explained the situation to him. And soon we were on our way to the Kusini Preserve. When we came to the check point, Captain Lumbaba saluted me.

"Our orders are to cooperate with you in every respect. What do you wish us to do?"

"If any of your men spot the poachers just let them enter the preserve. Wambasa has a short wave radio and will be alert for any message you may send us. We will leave the jeep here. I need two men to carry some supplies. We go on foot."

During the next day we checked the trails we knew the lions would take. And then we found the bait trap. A freshly killed goat had been placed beneath a tree. The lion would go for it and then the net would sweep down from above and catch him. Wambasa climbed the tree and cut the release cord.

"The poachers will come from the south," I said. "We set our nets and wait."

During the night I used my special field glasses to sweep the pen area. And when I saw the figures of three men then I gave a signal to Wambasa. He imitated the sound of a lion calling for help. The three men hurried to the tree where they had set the net. But instead, they themselves were suddenly swept off the ground. Two were in one net, and the other man in one net. We heard their shouts for help. But did nothing. We waited for the morning sun to rise.

Then slowly I walked over to them. They were above the ground and their leader, Hans Kruger was very angry.

"I don't know who put these nets here," he shouted. "Release us at once. I shall speak to the authorities."

"You three are here illegally," I replied. "This is closed territory. You came here to capture lions and to sell them."

"You can't prove that," retorted Hans Kruger. "I demand that you release us all now."

"I am under no obligation to do anything," I grinned. "You just stay there. Perhaps I will notify the authorities. Of course the animals will get your scent. And who knows what will be left of you should the nets fall to the ground."

We walked away and Hans Kruger did some quick reflections.

"Want to make a deal?" he asked.

"Only on my terms," I replied. "We will release your one man in that single net. He goes back to Kosogoro. Returns with the seven lions you have there in the zoo. You will all be fined. You have three minutes to decide. Yes or no?"

A minute later, Hans Kruger gave me his answer and there was a bit of irony in it:

"The trapper gets trapped! Will do as you say. I know when I am beaten. But at least by a worthy opponent - El Futuro. Only you could have known the direction we would take to come here."

HE'S LEAVING HIS PHONEY SKULL THRONE! LET'S FOLLOW HIM!
LEAVE ME! I WISH TO BE ALONE!
HE'S BATHING... LIKE A CAESAR!!

SUDDENLY, THE PHANTOM'S YES LIGHT UP...
SO THAT'S IT-- THAT'S HOW HE BESTED ME IN THE FIGHT!

Losing His Or Her Hair

If you are troubled by thinning hair dandruff itchy scalp, if you fear approaching baldness, read the rest of this statement carefully It may mean the difference to you between saving your hair and losing the rest of it to eventual baldness

Baldness is simply a matter of subtraction When the number of new hairs fail to equal the number of falling hair, you end up minus your head of hair (bald). Why not avoid baldness by preventing unnecessary loss of hair? Why not turn the tide of battle on your head by eliminating needless causes of hair loss and give Nature a chance to grow more hair for you? Many of the country's dermatologists and other foremost hair and scalp specialists believe that seborrhea, a common scalp disorder, causes hair loss. What is seborrhea? It is a bacterial infection of the scalp that can eventually cause permanent damage to the hair follicles. Its visible evidence is "thinning" hair. Its end result is baldness. Its symptoms are dry, itchy scalp, dandruff, oily hair, head scales, and progressive hair loss.

So, if you are beginning to notice that your forehead is getting larger, beginning to notice that there is too much hair on your comb, beginning to be worried about the dryness of your hair the itchyness of your scalp the ugly dandruff — these are Nature's Red Flags warning you of impending baldness Even if you have been losing your hair for some time, don't let seborrhea rob you of the rest of your hair

HOW COMATE WORKS ON YOUR SCALP

The development of an amazing new hair and scalp medicine called Comate is specifically designed to control seborrhea and stop the hair loss it causes. It offers the opportunity to thousands of men and women losing their hair to bacterial infection to reverse the battle they are now losing on their scalps By stopping this impediment to normal hair growth, new hairs can grow as Nature intended

This is how Comate works: (1) It combines in a single scalp treatment the essential corrective factors for normal hair growth. By its rubifacient action it stimulates blood circulation to the scalp, thereby supplying more nutrition to still-alive hair follicles. (2) As a highly effective antiseptic, Comate kills on contact the seborrhea-causing scalp bacteria believed to be a cause of baldness. (3) By its keratolitic action it dissolves ugly dandruff. By tending to normalize the lubrication of the hair shaft it corrects excessively dry and oily hair It eliminates head scales and scalp itch.

In short, Comate offers you in a single treatment the best that modern medicine has developed for the preservation of your hair. There is no excuse today except ignorance for any man or woman to neglect seborrhea and pay the penalty of hair loss

COMATE IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

To you we offer this UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE. Treat your scalp to Comate in your own home, following the simple directions. See for yourself in your own mirror how after a few treatments, Comate makes your hair look thicker and alive. How Comate ends your dandruff stops your scalp itch How Comate gives your hair a chance to grow Most men and women report results after the first treatment, some take longer. But we say this to you. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with the improvement in your own case — AT ANY TIME — return the unused portion for a prompt refund. No questions asked.

But don't delay. For the sake of your hair order Comate today Nothing — not even Comate — can grow hair from dead follicles. Fill out the coupon now, and take the first step toward a good head of hair again

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss. In such cases neither the Comate treatment nor any other treatment is effective.
